Blue Pastures is a compilation of essays, some of them published previously someplace else. They are all about nature, poetry, Mary Oliver and after reading them all, I understood, that she led us into her deepest laboratory of crafting poems. She showed us, where she does it - mostly in nature.

Blue Pastures by Mary Oliver - Goodreads
A private person by nature, Mary Oliver (1935-2019) gave very few interviews over the years. Instead, she preferred to let her work speak for itself. And speak it has, for the past five decades, to countless readers. Over the course of her long and illustrious career, Oliver received numerous awards.

Blue Pastures by Mary Oliver, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®
BLUE PASTURES, by Mary Oliver · RELEASE DATE: OCT. 1, 1995. In 15 short prose pieces Pulitzer prizewinning poet Oliver entertains her ``sustaining passions``: love for the natural world and for literature. Only her musings on the latter subject sustains much passion in the reader. Oliver is an inveterate wanderer and noticer, and her observations of the ``wild world`` near her Provincetown home burst with the lush detail of an obsessive notebook-keeper.

BLUE PASTURES | Kirkus Reviews
As in her previous prose volume, A Poetry Handbook, Oliver meditates on her hard-to-define art and goes on to consider her inspirations—Edna St. Vincent Millay, John Muir, Walt Whitman.
