9. Marisa de los Santos uses the image of falling in several ways throughout the novel. "There were people who could live on their own and be happy, and then there were people like Pen and Margaret who needed the falling together, the daily work of giving and taking and talk and touch." Discuss this example of falling.

Falling Together by Marisa de los Santos | Book Club ...

"Falling Together", a novel about three college friends who part ways after school and are brought together again years later under contrived circumstances was not my favorite book by Marisa de los Santos. Her lyric, fluid writing was there, but without enough of a realistic plot to bring it all together.
