It begins with some of royal court life in Gwynedd, during the reign of King Donal, the grandfather of Kelson, the main character of several other trilogies, and early on has the birth of Kelson's father, the future King Brion. Much of the novel follows the point of view of Alyce, a Deryni, with some magic powers, and just a teenager for most of the book, as she goes from her parents' court to the royal court and a few years in a convent for schooling, and then back to the royal court ...
